

TOGETHER, MOVING FORWARD Competition Copyright consent and responsibility form

By submitting a logo for entry in the competition, the participant acknowledges that she/he is the person that created the logo (patterns, shapes, typographies etc.). The participant also certifies that the logo does not infringe upon the rights of any third party and that it does not violate the EU Copyright Legislation (eleven directives and two regulations), which harmonise essential rights of authors and of performers, producers and broadcasters.

*Intellectual Property

1. Participants affirm their submissions are their own original work, have not been copied from others or from previous designs, including their own, and do not violate the intellectual property rights of any other person or entity.
2. Submissions become the sole property of ESU and may be used for any ESU purposes, including, but not limited to, display on websites, flyers, posters, or other materials.
3. ESU shall have the right to adapt, edit, modify, or otherwise use the winning submission in part or in its entirety in whatever manner it deems appropriate.
4. If the winner is determined to have violated any rules, she/he will be required to forfeit or return the prize, even if the determination is made after the prize has been awarded.
5. The participant assumes full legal responsibility in case of any infringement of copyright regulations.

Before submitting your designs, you have to agree to the rules and procedures of the Together, Moving Forward design competition:
